Welcome All!

Our Mass begins with a welcome to all, online and in person, by one of our Members. For our Online Guests/Members: We encourage you to have bread and wine for communion wherever you are!

Gathering Song

Greeting

✝ Our God is with you. And also with you.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. And also with you.

Prayer of Reconciliation

Sharing of Christ’s Peace

Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Psalm

Second Reading

Gospel

At Charis, we break open the Word together, although no one should feel obligated to speak unless they are comfortable doing so. We begin with the offsite community, and then invite those onsite forward to the ambo.

This is the table not of the Church but of the Christ, and all are welcome. We come, because it is Christ’s will that we meet him here. For this is the bread of life and the cup of salvation. And We, though many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread and in the one cup. Amen.

Prayer After Communion

Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord.

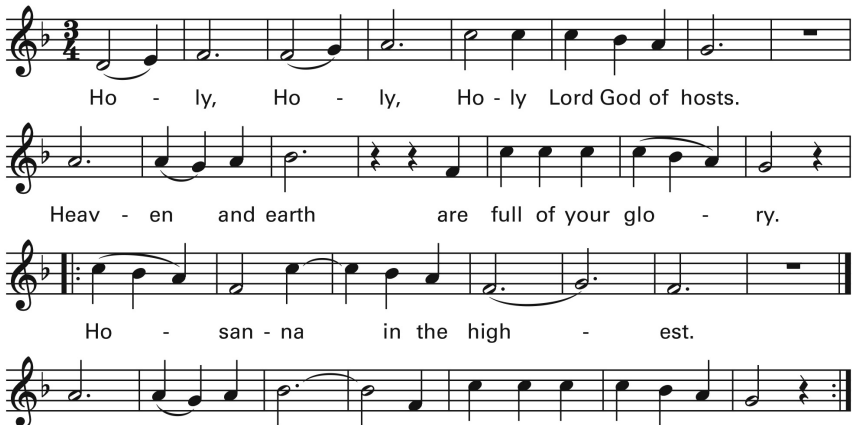

For as the fields grow quiet and the harvest is gathered in, you teach us, Father, to number our days and to store up treasure that does not fade. The leaves turn to gold and fall to the earth, not in loss, but in preparation, and by this gentle dying you show us that every ending in your hands becomes a beginning.

You clothe the hillsides in fire and amber that our eyes might lift from passing things to the beauty that does not pass away, and in the shortening light you call us to walk more nearly by the light of faith.

And so, with the fruits of the earth now gathered, and with hearts made grateful by your bounty, we join the harvest of all the saints and angels, all holy ones throughout the ages, as they sing to you without end:

HOLY

Lord, you are holy indeed, and all creation rightly gives you praise. All life, all holiness comes from you through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, by the working of the Holy Spirit. From age to age you gather a people to yourself, so that from east to west a perfect offering may be made to the glory of your name. And so, Father, we bring you these gifts. We ask you to make them holy by the power of your Spirit, that they may become the body + and blood of your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate this eucharist. Please join the presider by extending a hand toward the table in blessing.

Before he was given up to death, a death he freely accepted, He took bread and gave you thanks and praise; he broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take this, all of you, and eat it: This is my body, which will be given up for you. All pause and bow Please join the presider by extending a hand toward the table in blessing.

When supper was ended, he took the cup; again he gave you thanks and praise, gave the cup to his disciples, and said: Take this all of you and drink from it: This is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. All pause and bow

In memory of his death and resurrection, we offer you, holy God, this life-giving bread, this saving cup. We thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you. May all of us who share in the body and blood of Christ be brought together in unity by the Holy Spirit. Great is the mystery of faith

Celebrant: Loving God, may we always seek your forgiveness, that we may take our place with Mary and all the saints in the kingdom of your glory. It is your Son who draws all things to himself, that he might present them all to you, for it is: Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, forever and ever.

AMEN

Let us pray for the coming of the fullness of God’s reign on earth, as Jesus taught us : Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom, come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the Kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Lord, in the power of your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world.

Prayer of Belief

I believe in the Creator, who designs the seasons and holds the autumn world in His hands. He is the Architect of the changing leaves, the Provider of the harvest, and the One who teaches us the beauty of letting go as the earth prepares to rest.

I believe in the Son, Jesus Christ, who walked through the changing seasons of our human life. He is the True Vine, the Harvest of Righteousness, and our constant guide through the dark and shortening days, reminding us that even the deepest winter ends in the victory of the resurrection.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of autumn that stirs the falling leaves and comforts our hearts in times of transition. She is the fire that warms our souls, the Counselor who fills us with deep gratitude, and the hidden life working beneath the surface to prepare us for a new spring.

Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Our response is Lord Hear Our Prauer. When it is time for the community to share prayers, we will start and hear from the offsite community and respond. Then we will hear from everyone onsite and respond. If you have a prayer and are onsite, please come forward and wait to the side of the ambo. Thank you.

Preparation of the Gifts

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life. Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to offer, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become our spiritual drink. Blessed be God for ever.

Pray, my siblings in Christ, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty and holy One. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at our hands, for the praise and glory of God’s name, for our good, and the good of all the Church.
